

Provide clear contrast with national parks but not to diminish . If gov can't do it then from outside but no individual group with narrow interests .

It needs to reflect , inform and celebrate the broader multiple uses and values in state forests.

Forest education particularly in the context of state forests and their uses and values silviculture .

Redefine the trend of protection by exclusion, by trailing different techniques, coupe design and monitoring of out comes.

Value people's experience working in state forests, don't just focus on science to provide all the answers.

Continuous monitoring review and improvement process at the planning and operational level would add much.

The state of the forest report need to involve regional people more. Value collaboration.